

Why are Many Called, But Few Chosen?

Read: Why are Many Called, But Few Chosen? (CBCG)

God's Calling

How does God call us? List at least 3 different ways God might call someone.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Our Response to God's Calling

Once called, a person will respond in some way. Describe 4 aspects of a proper response to God's calling.

_____	_____
_____	_____

What Happens Next?

What steps must happen before we receive God's spirit?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

The Eyes of God

What are the "eyes of God" like? Complete the sentence below by drawing and labeling your comparison.

The eyes of God are like...

God draws those who _____ & have a repentant heart.

Read Matthew 13:18-23.

How does this parable relate to “many are called but few are chosen”?

Which are chosen in this parable? Why are they chosen?

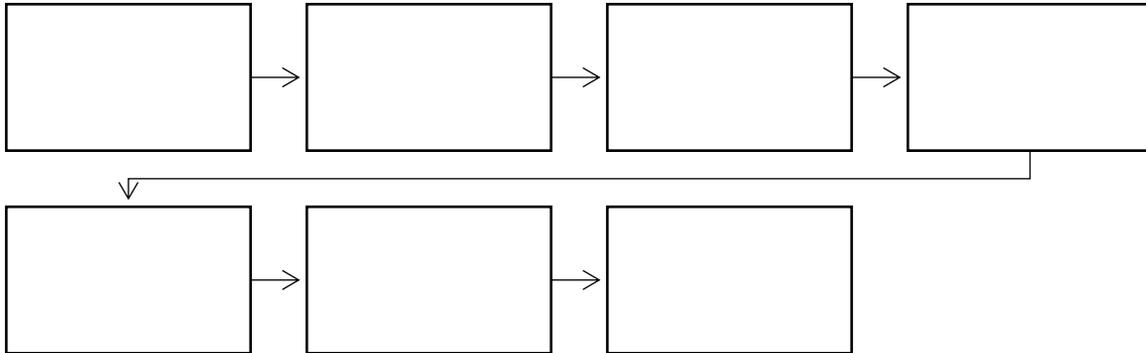

Where have the seed of God’s Word landed in your life based on your current actions? Color in the area for your answer. Explain what you can DO to respond to God’s calling differently, even if you are currently in the good soil.

The Process of God's Calling

Outline the process of God's calling & choosing someone based on this passage. Place each step in the appropriate order on the graphic below.

Read 2 Chronicles 15:1-4.

*The Lord is with you while you are _____ . If you
 _____ Him, He will be _____ by you, but if you
 _____ Him, He will _____ you.*

Imagine that someone had a crisis that caused him/her to seek God. After the crisis ended, how might someone be tempted to forsake God?

In the Parable of the Wheat & Tares, the tares are those who...

Myth or Truth?

- God uses difficult circumstances to draw us to Him.
- To search for God means you desire to know truth & have a humble and repentant heart.
- God understands our hearts, so He will overlook practicing sin.
- God chooses everyone who hears His Word.
- Overcoming sin is our part of a covenant with God at baptism.
- Baptism is symbolic of death to self and sin.
- The focus of our lives after baptism is to win others to Christ.
- The tares in the parable refer to those who were called & received, but then turned away from God.

Examining Ourselves

Based on this passage, how can you know if you have been called?

How can you know if you have been chosen?

What are your responsibilities to God as one who is chosen?

How Does God Choose?

Repentance is by the _____ of _____.

God chooses those who...

God's Way vs. Worldly Christianity

Think about what you have read & how it does not agree with the Christianity of much of the world. Site scripture to prove God's Truth against each false doctrine.

“Once saved, always saved”

Point	Scripture

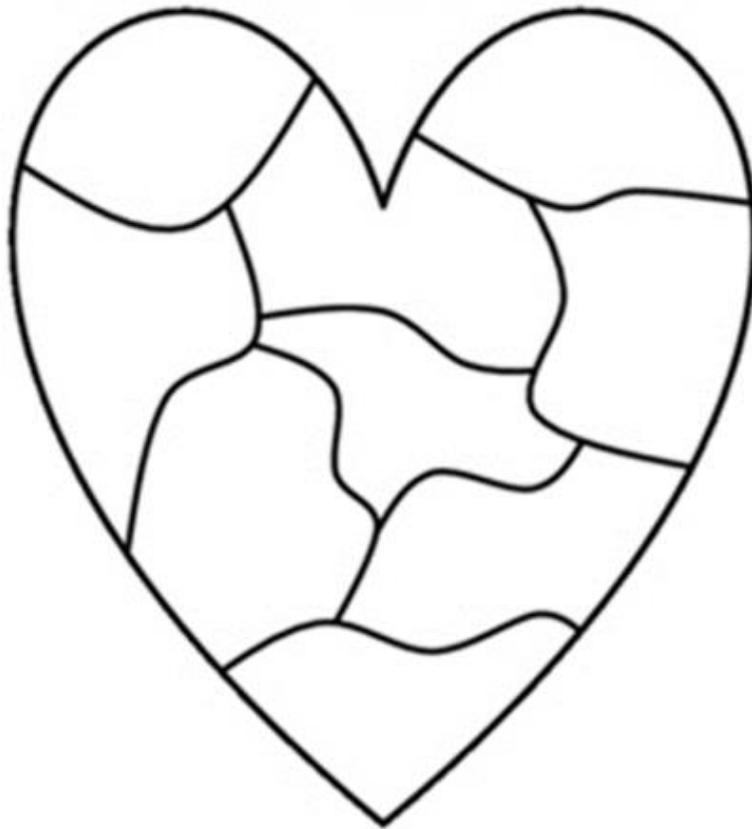

“We have to preach throughout the world so all can be saved.”

Point	Scripture

Importance of Being “All In”

Sometimes it is easy to give only part of our hearts or areas of our lives totally to God. To be chosen in the end, we need to be ALL IN. In each area of the heart below, write an area of your life. Then color in the areas you have totally given to Him to control.

Your Response to God

What is your personal response to God today? Write a prayer to Him in the speech bubble below.

A large speech bubble with a thick black border and a pointed bottom. Inside the bubble, there are 15 horizontal lines for writing, providing space for a personal response or prayer.

God is Calling & Choosing Now!

Create a sign showing characteristics of those God is calling & choosing for His coming Kingdom.

WANTED

Four stars on the left side and four stars on the right side of the central box.