Making Choices:

This world makes us believe that EVERYTHING decision be our own choice. In a way, that is true, but each choice brings us either closer to God or further away from Him. There is always a wise option and then other options that are not so wise by God's standards.

Think of 5 decisions you made this week. List each decision in one of the shapes below. Then draw the shape on the continuum line in reference to how close or far away your choice took you from God.
