

10th Commandment

Read Exodus 20:17 & Deut. 5:21.

What is God's tenth command? Write out the repeated phrase.

---

Coveting

What are the 7 examples of coveting used in Ex. 20:17? Draw each item in one of the boxes below & label it.

Do not covet...

What Do We Covet?

Rank these items in order of how you think most people commonly covet them today, 1 being the most coveted and 6 being the least coveted.

___ friendships

___ beauty

___ money

___ freedom

___ power

___ fame

___ attention

___ house

Understanding Coveting

Coveting what someone else has starts with lust & envy.

Draw a picture of someone coveting the car of his neighbor in the space below.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for a drawing. It occupies the lower half of the page.

Contentment is the opposite of coveting. What does this picture show about contentment?

---

"I wish I had that,
and he didn't."

True or False?

- ___ When we are content, we focus more on God.
- ___ Coveting does not easily lead to other sins.
- ___ Godliness with contentment is great gain.
- ___ Jesus & His disciples model contentment.
- ___ A focus on getting lots of money is a form of coveting.
- ___ Contentment allows us to trust God more.